

Part I Letter-writing. (40 points)

Directions: Peter, your American key pal (网友), is invited to a Chinese party the next month. He is at a loss what gifts he should bring to the Chinese host and hostess. Now you're going to write him a letter of about 120 words, explaining some basic rules for sending gifts in Chinese culture. The rules are mainly:

1. choose what the host and hostess like;
2. don't use black or white wrapping paper;
3. avoid some taboo items.

Remember, don't use your own name at the end of the letter. Use Xiaoming instead.
